

Jackie Pilcher, 81, died April 24, 2009 at the Evergreen Health Center in Bozeman.

She was born Jacqueline June Huffine on June 29, 1927 in Bozeman to John Daniel and Lena (Rhear) Huffine. She married Raymon Paul Pilcher in Henrietta, Texas on November 4, 1945. After two years in Henrietta, they returned to Bozeman where they raised their family.

Jackie worked as a telephone operator, ran the snack counter at Country Lanes and as a bookkeeper for Valley View Golf Course. Jackie enjoyed reading, crosswords, movies, crochet and knitting. She looked forward to her daily chats on the internet with her son in Alaska.

“She enjoyed life and made others enjoy it along with her. She will be missed.” She is preceded in death by her parents, JD and Lena Huffine; her husband, Ray Pilcher; her sister, Irma Fritts; and brothers, Curtis and Franklin Daniel Huffine. She is survived by her daughter’s family, Kathy and Mike Dean of Bozeman and their daughters, Erin and Kelly; her son’s family, Dan and Gigi Pilcher of Ketchikan, AK and their children, Danita and David Scott, Jessi, Zach and Nikki, Vicky, Bandon and Natasha; nine great-grandchildren and her two nieces, Linda Dean and Sharon Williamson. Jackie also leaves behind her lifelong friend, Mary Kilgore of Albuquerque.

Graveside services will be held at 1 pm Tuesday, April 28th in Sunset Memorial Park. Family and friends are invited to meet at Dokken-Nelson Funeral Service at 12:45 pm to process to the cemetery. Should friends desire, memorials in her name may be made to the charity of the donor’s choice. Arrangements are in the care of Dokken-Nelson Funeral Service. www.dokkennelson.com.
